The TV-news report: “Your company in...”

During your visit to or congress in '...', your group will be followed throughout the day by our camera crew. The crew will film the fun and interesting moments while ensuring that as many participants as possible are seen at their best in the final result.

The footage is then promptly edited to produce an amusing short TV report (newscast style) in which the event is presented as important and exclusive news by an actual anchorman, with the focus on your company and your guests. A report flash about your company (based on existing material edited by us) will also be inserted. Suitably matching credits and titles provide a stylish and attractive framework. The report is then aired on a large screen during your activities that same evening, providing your guests with an unforgettable surprise.
